Bister The Imperial has been part of the Belgian culinary heritage since 1926. As the leader in the Belgian organic mustard market it extends it to share its heritage inc:

- Traditions and gastronomy,
- Visit the workshops and incentives,
- Family-run establishment, with tours and small museum.

Bister represents 10% of classical mustard consumption in Belgium and is the leader on the Belgian market for organic mustard. For several years, the company has diversified and also produces many sauces and condiments.

Despite its expansion, Bister remains a family establishment and has recently moved to Achêne, in the Province of Namur.
