Delight your customers and employees with a highly original visit to Durbuy, blending gastronomy and history, run by Discover Belgium Wallonia.

With its romantic charm, narrow lanes and marked walks, the “smallest city in the world” is a real gem. Discover Belgium Wallonia takes you to Durbuy for an unusual culinary guided tour, combining historical and gastronomic features, from Sainte-Walburge church to the splendid ancient elm trees, via a selection of restaurants.

A culinary walk around Durbuy

Discover Belgium has designed a culinary walk, uncovering the secrets and gastronomy of the self-styled “smallest city in the world”. There is no shortage of interesting features, and your guide will regale your guests for the day with many a tale about them.

En route, your staff or customers will have the opportunity to sample a starter, main course and a desert in three carefully selected restaurants. Good cheer and good company are also on the menu during this teambuilding activity aimed at forging relationships between the attendees.

A superb opportunity to get away from it all and teambuild in the beautiful Belgian province of Luxembourg.
